

SUDBURY AT WAR!

The story of how the town and neighbourhood fought at home and on the battle grounds in two World Wars. It counts the human and economic cost, from the fate of the men who went to war in 1914 to beyond V E Day in 1945

Written by Valerie Herbert & Shirley Smith - Foreword by Ronald Blythe

More than 245 illustrations. Now on sale at £14.95

Published by Sudbury Museum Trust

The impact of war on Sudbury - a Suffolk market town

NO GLORIOUS DEAD

NO GLORIOUS DEAD

The impact of war on Sudbury Suffolk

Valerie Herbert & Shirley Smith

Available from Kestrel Bookshop
Sudbury Tourist
Office, Waitrose,
Landers Bookshop,
at Long Melford
and Lavenham
Post Office

SUDBURY MUSEUM TRUST

heritage
SUDBURY